Guests

Elaine Mastromatteo, Chuck McMonagle, Carolyn Marino and Steve Craiger each one was observing the meeting.

Resident Mr. Marshall was present and reported that he had purchased landscaping pipe for his property and that the road department could start any time with installing it.

Ken Weeks Zoning Commission Chairman reported that there was good conversation at the last meeting concerning shipping/storage containers and ways they are being modified. The next Zoning Commission meeting will be October 12, 2016 at 7PM in the Administration Building.

Greg Maraczi Township Supervisor reported that Chip & Sealing is about finished and the County Engineers office did a great job helping out by furnishing man power and equipment. The down tree in Sager Cemetery has been cleaned up. Roadside mowing and ditching will begin next week. Greg also was asked to get at least 3 estimates for fencing around Kagy Cemetery for the next meeting.

Steve Papalas from the County Engineers reported that his office would not be able to help with some sink holes in a resident's yard due to the pipe being on private property. He also introduced a friend and neighbor running for the Trumbull Soil and Water board.

Old Business

Trustee French reported that Mike Makes Signs is working on drawings for a sign for the Park and 2 signs for placement at Kagy Cemetery. Trustees plan to inquire about a Historical sign to be placed at Kagy Cemetery also.

Trustee Seemann announced that a check from Farmington was received for EMS services in the amount of $2,600.00.

Four sealed bids have been received so far for the Self Contained Breathing Apparatus. Bid Opening will be Tuesday, October 4, 2016, at 7PM, in the administration building during a regular meeting. Advertised September 14th and 24th in the Tribune Chronicle as per the ORC, twice 10 days apart, we will be accepting bids until 4 PM on October 4th, 2016.

Mr. Seemann read a letter to go out to the Rainbow girls thanking them for willingness to give back to their community through their service project painting the fence at Pioneer Cemetery.

New Business

State Route 88 will be closed just past Thompson Clark Road due to bridge repairs the week of October 3, 2016.
